Description	Amount
Veterinary Care and Special Needs Supplies consumed the second largest share of our total donations; generally going to alteration, disease management, and accommodation of paralyzed and deformed sanctuary residents. Neuters are our greatest Vet expense and our highest value. As a safety-net sanctuary we receive residents with already critical care needs, this expense is dynamic and requires constant re-evaluation of competing priorities.	$27,664
Our primary program area is ongoing care for animals in residence. Care starts with proper foodstuffs. Our pig grain is specially formulated for longevity. Our hay provider change has drastically improved operations because they both deliver and stack 50+ days of hay in our hay shed for us. Chicken feed, dog food, and feral cat supplemental foods constitute less our smaller foodstuff needs. Local farmers supply both free seasonal produce, but also extend to us excellent discounts on produce that is not aesthetically appropriate for supermarkets but are still of high nutritional value.	$141,539

Steampunk Farms, like many organizations, Dreams Big! The big dream is to rescue all manner of abused, neglected, and abandoned farmed and ambassador animals. These animals enjoy enrichment that emulates their natural instincts as far as possible while ensuring their breeding history, ailments, and other encumbrances are accommodated as they find herd mates with whom to embrace sanctuary. As a safety-net sanctuary, the most neglected and unwanted animals are those that find their way here. We enrich their days with produce overstock from small farmers that provide fresh produce, hay, grain, apples, pumpkins, herding opportunities, natural mountain settings, and excellent care. Rescue and Sanctuary are the foundation upon which our educational and persuasive efforts are based.

As a response to economic and fundraising-platform impacts on overall donations, we have massively restructured our digital presence to include, donor-involved leadership on our Boards page, published numerous articles on cruelty-free environmental stewardship, developed an extensive set of coursework on ethical persuasion, and expanded our cruelty-free line of soaps. These programs have allowed us to reach new donors that have proven to be consistent, ongoing supporters through their involvement and purchases.
